

Virtual Reality Hazard Awareness

Module 2: Struck By, Caught Between

Activities

1. If a ladder falls on electrical cords, there is the _____ for _____ if the cord is cut.
2. Look up! Be aware of _____ materials.
3. Trips hazards (cords) should be _____ off the ground to avoid _____ and _____. This _____ a lot of problems.
4. Be aware of unfinished roofing during _____ seasons; frost can be on the _____ of a steel roof. _____ and _____ can fall from the roof.
5. Wind can blow through _____ and cause _____, _____ and _____ to blow over.
6. Always be aware of _____ when working with machinery.
7. Operators may have _____; pay attention to _____.
8. Working around machinery can be _____; ensure you are wearing proper _____ gear and attempt to make eye contact with the _____ whenever possible.
9. You must be properly _____ before operating any _____ on a job site.
10. Always know where overhead _____ and _____ is taking place; It is important to avoid it in the event of falling _____.

11. Weather _____ can affect if _____ are operable or not.

12. When operating machinery, be aware of uneven _____ and tip _____. When you are driving on uneven ground, a person can be _____ from the _____.

Extra Credits

Discussion Questions:

- Identify a situation where a worker could be struck by or caught between something on a worksite.
- When is red and yellow tape used on a worksite?
- What incidents are you aware of that resulted in a worker being struck by or caught between? How could these incidents have been avoided?